

Idaho Women Farmers & Ranchers: Level of Involvement in Aspects of the Operation

Idaho's women in agriculture are involved in many or all aspects of their farm and ranch operations. More than 75% of respondents indicated they are highly involved in the day-to-day decisions for their farm or ranch and more than 70% are highly involved in the financial bookkeeping or accounting for their operation. Nearly 65% of respondents indicated moderate or no involvement in accessing technical assistance for their operation.

Please indicate your level of involvement in the following aspects of your farm or ranch.

High, moderate, or no involvement.

Total Question Responses: 558

In Spring 2021, the Idaho Women in Ag Research Team conducted a statewide survey to better understand the challenges and opportunities facing Idaho's women in agriculture and how educational programs can better support them. More than 400 women completed the full survey.
